- 25X1 1. Since February 1952, a special commission has been inspecting attics in all buildings. This commission has ordered all personal belongings removed from the attics, and has drawn plans of all attics which it has inspected. Informant states that these measures have been taken as part of preparations for air raid defense.
2. Women of all ages are being recruited for training in the medical service of the air raid defense organization. The Polish authorities have promised to provide all volunteers with a better-paying job at the completion of the course.
